

Journey By Car

The bcc is located at the very heart of Berlin. Therefore, heading in the direction of Berlin-Zentrum (city centre) is always the right choice. As soon as road signs start distinguishing between „Berlin Zentrum (Zoo or West)“ and „Berlin Zentrum (Alexanderplatz)“ you want to go for the second option - the address of the bcc is „Alexanderstr 11“ and it is located in the district of Berlin-Mitte.

Arriving via the Autobahn ring road system, the Berliner Ring (A10), we recommend a variety of routes depending on the direction you are coming from.

Arrival via A24 or A11

At the Autobahn interchange Pankow (Exit 35) change to the A114. After a few kilometers it becomes the city traffic road Prenzlauer Promenade, later Prenzlauer Allee. Just drive straight on until you reach the Alexanderplatz. Take a left turn before you reach the ParkInn Hotel (Berlin's tallest tower block), then promptly turn right and then left again. Welcome to the bcc at the corner of Alexanderstraße!

Arrival via A2 or A9

Arriving from the west you want to exit the Autobahn A10 at the interchange Dreieck Drewitz and drive along the A115 (the Avus) towards Berlin Zentrum. Spotting the Radio Tower (Funkturn) you change to the A100 in direction to Hamburg. Leave the Autobahn after a few hundred meters at the exit Kaiserdamm, following the road signs to Kaiserdamm. Turn left onto the traffic road Kaiserdamm, heading eastwards and drive straight ahead towards the Brandenburg Gate (Brandenburger Tor).

Drive round the Brandenburger Tor (closed for public traffic), keeping to the right side of the gate until you reach that large eastward bound road again (now named „Unter den Linden“). Drive on eastwards and then turn right into Spandauer Strasse. Turn left at the large crossing about 80 metres after having passed the town hall of Berlin (Rotes Rathaus) towards Alexanderplatz/Prenzlauer Berg. Do not enter the road tunnel but drive on straight ahead keeping on the right side of the road - you will be able to spot the bcc directly behind the bridge on your right hand side.

Arrival via A12 or A13

Arriving from the Autobahn A13, crossing the A10, you will be led straight to the centre of Berlin via the A113. Coming from the A12 you want to change to the A10 until taking a turn at the interchange Schönefelder Kreuz to the A113. After a while the A113 becomes the federal road B96a (in direction of Berlin Zentrum). Follow the federal road B96a for quite some time, then continuing from the area around Treptower Park in zigzags towards the historical bridge Oberbaumbrücke, where the road B96a takes a turn. Leave the federal road B96a by driving straight ahead towards Alexanderplatz alongside the „East-Side-Gallery“. Straight on, passing the railway station Ostbahnhof, you will reach the junction at Jannowitzbrücke where you want to turn right into Alexanderstraße heading towards the TV tower on Alexanderplatz. The bcc is located about 600 metres onwards, right at the end of Alexanderstraße.
